

Rule Nine – Equal Opportunities Policy

Statement of policy:

BASRT is committed to the promotion of equal opportunities in all its activities, which means no-one should be discriminated against by reason of their race, religion, gender, class, age, disability or sexual orientation.

Implementation:

With regard to all its members, activities, staffing and procedures BASRT will:

1. Endeavour to provide equality of access and participation
2. Work to highlight ways in which members may become more aware of overt and covert discrimination in their own work and activities
3. Collect information, regularly evaluate and monitor
4. Produce a programme of work and report annually to Trustees
5. Ensure all members receive a copy of this policy as an inherent part of the code of practice.

22nd September 2000