

Rule Twelve – Data Protection Statement 2006

BASRT is committed to maintaining the highest standards of confidentiality. Any information you provide will be used by BASRT or its employees to identify you for the purposes of providing membership services and when necessary for the management of complaints. We will vet any third party we may engage to help deliver those services to ensure they meet our high standards. No information that would identify you will be passed to any other third party without your consent, but BASRT may aggregate data from an area to better represent your professional needs to government and other agencies. BASRT will also use information to help ensure that only bona fide persons are able to present themselves as BASRT members. BASRT is registered as a Data Controller with the Information Commissioner – Reg No Z6961532.
